

ISO 9001 : 2008 - Certified Lead Auditor

Introduction

The ISO 9001: 2008 - Certified Lead Auditor certification course is exclusively designed by the GAQM for professionals who would like to build their careers as lead auditors for ISO 9001 and implement Quality Management Systems (QMS). It is closely ensured that the training program covers all the ISO 9001:2008 standards in detail. In addition, the ISO 9001: 2008 certification exam is built to cope up with the specific needs of an organization in fulfilling the requirements for competent, knowledgeable, and well-trained internal auditors. Moreover, a Certified Lead Auditor certification enables candidates to develop the expertise needed to audit a Management System and manage a team of auditors by applying widely accepted audit principles, techniques, and methods.

Course Highlights

The core aspects of the ISO 9001: 2008 - Certified Lead Auditor credential is the following:

- The principles of ISO 9001
- How to set quality audit objectives
- Confidence in performing an audit
- How to report and take follow up actions
- Understand quality management roles and responsibilities

Course Outline

Those responsible for planning and scheduling an audit program for ISO 9001:2008 and those who must perform audits to ISO 9001:2008, Quality Assurance Managers, Quality Assurance professionals, ISO Project Managers, ISO Project Team Members or anyone desiring an in-depth understanding of the ISO 9001: 2008 Audit Process.

Prerequisites

The ISO 9001 : 2008 - Certified Lead Auditor Certification has no pre-requisites.

Target Audience

- Staff who are charged with the responsibility to develop and maintain a QMS
- All QMS auditors who wish to acquire an internationally recognized auditor status
- Those who wish to explore career opportunities in management system auditing

Duration

15 - 20 hours training course