

ISO 9001 : 2008 - Certified Internal Auditor

Introduction

The ISO 9001: 2008 - Certified Internal Auditor certification course is designed by the GAQM for individuals who desire to learn about the concepts of quality management systems. The course successfully provides a deep understanding of ISO 9001 system requirements, process approach, risk-based thinking, and quality management principles. In addition, the ISO 9001: 2008 certification exam is built to cope up with the specific needs of an organization in fulfilling the requirements for competent, knowledgeable, and well-trained internal auditors. Moreover, a Certified Internal Auditor also deals with the maintenance of quality standards and the principles of internal auditing in their respective organization.

Course Highlights

The core aspects of the ISO 9001: 2008 - Certified Internal Auditor credential is the following:

- The principles of ISO 9001
- How to set quality audit objectives
- Confidence in performing an audit
- How to report and take follow up actions
- Understand quality management roles and responsibilities

Course Outline

- Explain the process-based quality management system model for ISO 9001 with reference to the Plan, Do, Check, Act cycle
- Explain the role of internal audit in the maintenance and improvement of quality management systems
- Explain the role and responsibilities of an auditor to plan, conduct, report, and follow up an internal audit, in accordance with ISO 19011
- Explain the purpose and business benefits of improving the effectiveness of a quality management system
- Define an internal quality management system audit
- Plan, conduct, report and follow up an internal audit and in accordance with ISO 19011
- Explain root cause analysis

Prerequisites

ISO 9001 : 2008 - Certified Internal Auditor Certification has no pre-requisites.

Target Audience

- People involved in the implementation or maintenance of ISO
- Individuals looking for a better position in ISO certified companies.
- Qualification or Age is not a criterion.
- Process owners in an organization.

Duration

15 - 20 hours training course